Diary No. 4363	Enclos.	Spare Copies.	Serial No. 1

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Suggests that Clause (1) of rule 80 of the Rules under the L.B Regulation may be amended so as to admit of the Collections made by Local board Servants in the mofussil being remitted to the Treasury once a month instead of once a week as required by the ~~present~~ rule as at present worded

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) The inconvenience complained of appears to be a real one. If approved the word 'month' may be substituted for the word 'week' in Rule 80(1)

2) Submitted for orders. The safeguards re-commended also seem necessary.

S I R,

I have the honor to state that in conformity with rule 80(1) of the revised Local Board Rules which requires that all collections made by authorised servants of a Local Board shall be remitted to Treasuries concerned not less than once a week, a circular order was issued to all the Taluks to make needful arrangements to bring into force the provision of this rule wherever the same was not acted upon.

The Deputy Amildar of the Harihar Sub Taluk brings to notice that such collections are being remitted once a month and that the procedure is in vogue for a long time in the Sub Taluk. In case the collections are to be remitted once a week according to Rule 80 he states that it will be attended with unnecessary difficulty, inconvenience and expense to the servants entrusted with the collection work in outstations. The case of the Malebennur patel who looks after the collection of the Union taxes is quoted as an instance. If the money has to be remitted once a week, the patel will have to be absent from his village 2 or 3 days in a week to go to the Davangere Treasury which is 21 miles from Malebennur requiring a journey of 12 miles by road and 9 miles by rail. Moreover the average collections of the Union taxes for a week will be very small viz Rs 12 and odd and the weekly remittance of this amount is reported to be not worth the trouble and expense of the journey which the patel has to bear. Similarly if the pound collections in outlying villages are to be credited once a week it will mean that for a remittance of a few annas or a few rupees the pound keeper - generally the patel - will have to go to the Treasur once a week.

Generally the village servants are entrusted in this District with the collection of Union taxes and they are also in charge of cattle-pounds. As these servants with hereditary right do the collection work in Unions, I think they may be allowed to remit the collections once a month as in the case of Land Revenue and therefore request that Rule 80(1) may be suitably amended. In the case of non-hereditary servants such as Mutsaddies entrusted with collection, security may either be taken from them - say for Rs 50 Rs 100 as the case may be - or arrangements may be made for their handing over monies from time to time to the patel who is the revenue agent of Government in the village for collection purposes.

I have the honor to be,
